Dear:

I sent you a copy of this book for reviewing in your columns, but now yet have I seen it if you received it. Perhaps you failed to get it. If so I shall be glad to send you another copy. R.A.L.

Others Are Reading "AUNT EMILY" Why Not You?

An old South Plantation Love Story of 35,000 words, "done" in Tablet "form to fit the depression." A tribute to the faithful old "Black Mammies" of the past; preserving valuable folk-lore, and pronounced: "Thrilling"; "Gripping"; "A lovely story," "I laughed and cried", etc. Written by a Mississippian, Richard W. Lewis, D.D., a foreword by Hon. William Gibbs McAdoo. Your local papers should review it, your literary clubs read it, your libraries have it. Negro wit and philosophy to entertain white and black, North and South. Price only 50 cents or 3 for $1.00 prepaid. Let us have your order today.

Address: The Good Books Co.,
Siloam Springs, Ark.

August 9, 1932.

Rev. William Barnes Lower,
5028 N. 12th Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Dr. Lower:

While in Delhi sometime ago I received your letter with the item taken from The Presbyterian Advance. I thank you for expressions of loyalty to THE PRESBYTERIAN. We are having a very hard time and whether we can weather through until something better appears, is yet to be seen. I appreciate your friendship very much indeed.

Most cordially yours,

WCR*E

THE PRESBYTERIAN ADVANCE

PUBLISHED WEEKLY $2.50 PER YEAR

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

PRESBYTERIAN BUILDING, 150 FOURTH AVENUE, N.

ONLY JOURNAL OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH U. S. A. WEST OF PITTSBURGH

CENTRALLY PUBLISHED: CIRCULATED NATIONALLY AND IN FOREIGN LANDS

JAS. E. CLARKE, EDITOR

JAMES V. CLARKE, MANAGING EDITOR

Dear Robinson:

I thought you might like to see the article sent to me by the advance. I asked my copyist on the ground that the weekly endeavor to give so many sermons. I have always taken the Presbyterian.

Love

Rev. Wallace J. Anderson, of Korea, jointly supported by Holy Trinity, Logan, and Bethany Temple, on Wednesday eve, April 27, spoke in Korean costume at Bethany Temple. He was with Holy Trinity Sunday morning, April 24, and Sunday evening, May 1.

Many of the churches of the city made Sunday, May 1, "Boys' Sunday." Many of our own Presbyterian churches of the city have Boy Scouts, and in many instances they had some part in one of the services on May 1. On April 30, there was a large parade of the Boy Scouts, witnessed officially by Mayor Moore and his staff. In keeping with the spirit of "Boys' Week," Dr. Wm. Barnes Lower, pastor of Holy Trinity, Logan, broadcast a message from WFI, May 2, on "Our Boys." Dr. Alexander MacColl, at Second Church, spoke at his vesper service on "The Boy Who Always Got His Own Way."

SOMETHING ABOUT YOU!

SOMETHING ABOUT YOU!

M. B. LAMBDIN
3534 PARK PLACE N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Sept. 14, 1932.

The Rev. W. Courtland Robinson, D.D.
Editor The Presbyterian

Dear Dr. Robinson -

I want to thank you for the splendid setting which you gave my art - Samson - after its long "residence in chambers" for about twelve months. Possibly, with the pyramidal accumulation of Mss. in your Edl. rooms it was the best you could do. Am hoping you can make use of the enclosed, further in a shorter period of time. If the way is open with you, I'd like to have a place for my pen work at least twice within the year, if not a little more frequently. Let me know. Should you have some extra copies on hand, I'd thank you for a few more containing my art. Cordially yours

M. B. Lambdin

North Presbyterian Church

ST. LOUIS AND WARNE AVENUES

ST. LOUIS, MO.

MINISTER
JOHN CALVIN LEONARD, S.T.D., PH. D.

MANSE
4035 ST. LOUIS AVENUE
TELEPHONE, COLFAX 5090

Oct. 15th., 1932.

Rev. W. Courtland Robinson, D.D.
1217 Market St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

My Dear Dr. Robinson :-

It has just come to me that Dr. Ritter is leaving the 4th. Church of Pittsburgh, Pa. If it is not asking too much I would appreciate very much a letter, presenting me to that Church. It was never my privilege to become personally acquainted with you, , but Miss McKinney can supply you with all the imformation as to my work and my connection with the Presbyterian, that you donot have in the files of the paper. I will more than appreciate every effort put forth on my behalf. You may refer them to our Executive Sect. the Rev. Donald MacLeod, D.D. Arcade Bldg., St. Louis, Mo. or to Dr. MacIvor of the 2d. Church. I would be happy to run into Pittsburgh for a Sabbath if they wished me to. Thanks, and may the Lord bless you in the very fine work you are doing, with the Presbyterian.

Ever Cordially,

John Calvin Leonard.

P.S.- The Clerk of the Session of the 4th. Church is Robert Housely,
6521 Northumberland St.,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

LEE
154 PALMER AVENUE
SYRACUSE, N. Y.

Oct. 26, 1932.

My dear Dr. Robinson;

It was a gracious act in The Presbyterian to say kind words about a retired minister. You more what I wish to be than what I am.

But especially appfeciated is your laying before your many readers the birthday meditation as a personal testimony to belief in immortality through Christ. After Bishop M'Dowell, my college classmate, had read my lines he wrote me, "As we come to a certain age we rather desperately need such assurance. Thank heaven you have it. Thank heaven I have it".

Wishing you highest success in your steadfast stand for all that is good, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Charles Lee

Rev. Charles Lee.

To Dr. W. Courtland Robinson,

Editor of The Presbyterian.

Life is a prize; bring it.
life is a song; sing it.
Life is a realm; king it.
Life is a flight; wing it.

December 21, 1932.

Mr. G. A. Landes,
602 N. Michigan Ave.,
Pasadena, Cal.

Dear Mr. Landes:

Accept the thanks of THE PRESBYTERIAN for your great help. Personally, I thank you very much. We are having a tough time but still trust the Lord.

Cordially yours,

W. Courtland Robinson.

WCR*E